

Frank H. Netter MD
School of Medicine

RARE DISEASE DAY SYMPOSIUM

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

STEVEN AND KIMBERLY GENTILE

PARENTS AND ADVOCATES OF A CHILD WITH HUNTER SYNDROME

DR. DAVID ALAN SWEETSER

CHIEF OF MEDICAL GENETICS AND METABOLISM

AT MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL

MGH SITE DIRECTOR, UNDIAGNOSED DISEASES NETWORK

FRANK H. NETTER MD SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2020 | 1:00-5:00 PM

POSTER SESSION, PATIENT ADVOCATE ORGANIZATIONS
& RECEPTION IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING

ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS NOW OPEN

Rare Disease Day 2020 aims to raise awareness and promote scientific research of rare diseases. Admission is free and open to the public including patients, patient advocates, health care providers, researchers, industry representatives and policy makers.

Visit GO.QU.EDU/RareDiseaseDay to register or submit an abstract.